AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION is an independent, impartial critical journal whose editors and publishers are motivated only by the spirit of scientific inquiry and service to the users of documentation. Publication is on a cooperative, non-profit basis. The editors while they assume editorial responsibility do not necessarily endorse the opinions expressed by the writers. No comment or pronouncement may be cited as official endorsement of the American Documentation Institute. Permission must be obtained from the Editorial Office to reprint any article in full or to quote extensively.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $6.00 per year postpaid in the United States and abroad; $1.00 per year discount to public, college, and university libraries in the United States. Single Copies $2.50 each. Complete back volumes $5.00 per volume. Payment should be made direct to the Office of the Editor.

ADVERTISING will be accepted. Advertising schedules and other information available from the Editorial Office.

EDITORIAL OFFICE: All correspondence, both business and editorial, and all manuscripts should be directed to:

JESSE H. SHERA, Editor AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION.
School of Library Science, Western Reserve University,
Cleveland 6, Ohio

Communications and pertinent manuscripts are solicited: the non-profit character of the journal precludes payment for manuscripts and those sent will be at the owner's risk.

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION is indexed in LIBRARY LITERATURE, published by the H. W. Wilson Co., 950–972 University Avenue, New York 52, N.Y.
